Celebrating Janet Erskine Stuart, Sixth Superior General, Society of the Sacred Heart

By Carolyn Osiek, RSCJ

Thoughtful presentations, stimulating discussion, magnificent hospitality and the chance to interact with Religious of the Sacred Heart, Associates, alumnae, collaborators and friends from many countries—all of this and more was the experience of participants in several activities in London from June 23 to July 2, 2014 in honor of the centenary of the death of Janet Erskine Stuart, sixth Superior General of the Society of the Sacred Heart (1857-1914). At the invitation of the England-Wales Province, more than a week of activities and celebration were enjoyed by participants from England, Ireland, Scotland, United States, Canada, France, Japan, Australia, New Zealand and Mexico along with young RSCJ from India, Peru, Korea, Brazil and Japan studying English in London.

The first group of more than one hundred gathered for an academic conference June 23-26 at the University of Roehampton, of which one of the five component colleges is Digby Stuart, on the grounds of the original Convent of the Sacred Heart, Roehampton, where Janet Stuart lived for twenty-nine years. Most of the original buildings were destroyed in World War II, but the small Sacred Heart chapel was preserved, where Mothers Mabel Digby and Janet Stuart, and Father Joseph Varin, one of St. Madeleine Sophie's closest collaborators, are buried.

Saintly treasure: St. Philippine Duchesne's profession cross, given to Anna Du Rousier, RSCJ, shortly before Philippine's death and later presented to Janet Erskine Stuart, RSCJ.

Marian Campana, Convent of the Sacred Heart, Greenwich and Fran Tobin, RSCJ, at The Seeking Spirit conference.

Muriel Cameron, RSCJ, and Jessica Mueller, Sacred Heart Schools, Atherton faculty member, enjoy The Seeking Spirit conference.

The academic conference in honor of Mother Stuart, Inspiring Souls: Reflections on Education, Spirituality and Leadership, was organized by Digby Stuart College. Among the major presenters were Sue Acheson, RSCJ, of the England-Wales Province, Sandra Schneiders, I.H.M., Jean Bartunek, RSCJ, of Boston College and the United States–Canada Province, and two professors from the University of Roehampton, Suzy Harris (professor of education and director of the Centre for Research in Beliefs, Rights and Values in Education) and Tina Beattie (professor of Catholic studies and director of the Digby Stuart Research Centre for Religion, Society and Human Flourishing). Among simultaneous sessions were presentations by Betsy Walsh, RSCJ (University of San Diego), Ray O’Connor (Sacred Heart Schools, San Francisco) and Laura Hickman (Duchesne Academy, Omaha).

With two days between conferences, many visitors took to buses and “the tube” to get around London, even to visit places that featured in Mother Stuart’s life, thanks to a PowerPoint guide meticulously prepared by our hostesses. At the end of the second day, June 27, 140 visitors and members of the province celebrated the Feast of the Sacred Heart together at Roehampton, followed by a buffet supper. By this time we had been joined by representatives from at least nine countries and by the whole general council of the Society and others from the motherhouse in Rome.

The next day, two busloads took to the road on a pilgrimage to Janet Stuart’s hometown of Cottesmore, about three hours north of London (pronounced “Cotesmore” by Londonites and “Cotsmore” by the locals). Here we visited first the old Anglican church of St. Nicholas, where Janet was baptized by her father, the vicar of the parish. A memorable prayer service in the church was followed by a short walk to the nearby rectory, where the present residents welcomed us into the house and spacious gardens. Then, between the house and the church, is the cemetery, where the large Stuart family is buried under one large slab, and where Janet at age six, following the example of Jesus with Lazarus, expected to be able to raise her deceased mother to life.

On Sunday, June 29, again two busloads headed for the High Leigh Conference Center for the final segment, The Seeking Spirit, June 29-July 2, sponsored by the England-Wales Province. There, prayer together framed serious—and sometimes not-so-serious—investigations. The invitation to someone from each English-speaking province to give a paper on a relevant subject led to explorations of Janet Stuart’s family and ancestry by Nora Smyth, RSCJ, of Ireland and Moira Donnelly, RSCJ, of Scotland; her influence on education by Mieko Uno, RSCJ of Japan and Frances Gimber, RSCJ, of the U.S.; the tale of her brother Richard in Australia by Rita Carroll, RSCJ, (Stuartholme School in Brisbane takes its name from him); and Janet as formation director by Mary Hinde, RSCJ, of England, all framed by contributions from Sue Acheson, RSCJ, from her wealth of knowledge of Janet and her world.

Attendance by RSCJ and all kinds of friends and collaborators from Sacred Heart schools and elsewhere created a wonderful mix of interested participants, with good time for relaxing and socializing amidst great natural beauty. The hospitality of the England-Wales Province was outstanding. It seemed that the same few people were doing everything: welcoming, cooking, organizing and guiding. To participants, it all seemed to flow effortlessly, the sign of a good meeting, even if insiders know all the flaws. A great success for which all participants were exceedingly grateful!

“Events are the sacraments of the will of God.”

—Janet Erskine Stuart, RSCJ

RSCJ, Associates, Sacred Heart educators, alumnae/-i and friends from the United States and Canada gathered in London for the conference.

Dear Family and Friends,

This report is our opportunity to thank you formally and publicly for your friendship and support during the past year. You make it possible for the Religious of the Sacred Heart in Canada and the United States to continue the mission begun by our foremothers, Sophie and Philippine, and lived out by thousands of women who rooted their lives in the love of the Sacred Heart.

The international Society recently published a brief document that both recalls the wisdom of those who came before us and articulates the calls of our life and spirituality today. While Life Unfolding: Offering the Gift is directed primarily to Religious of the Sacred Heart, I think its message might resonate with you.

We feel invited once again to connect with our roots, with the wisdom of the women who preceded us, to explore the gift and potential of our spirituality for today. We need to move, to let ourselves be transformed and renewed, so that we can respond from the depths of our being and throughout our lives, remembering who we are and by Whom we are called.

(Life Unfolding: Offering the Gift)

The charism of the Society of the Sacred Heart calls us to discover and make known the love of the Heart of Christ. This call is the heart of our life as Religious of the Sacred Heart, in our mission and ministry, in our prayer and in the way we live together in apostolic community. You are a part of that call.

This year has been filled with blessings. In August, we joyfully welcomed Uchenna Oluoha as a novice in our new novitiate in Halifax. We have also begun a welcoming community in Berkeley where women can “come and see” our way of life.

Our new United States–Canada Province has become a lived reality. Our two Sacred Heart schools in Canada (Halifax and Montreal) have joined the Network of Sacred Heart Schools as provisional members. The Stuart Center in Washington, DC is helping us live our mission through technology, leadership training and attention to justice issues. Our house of studies in Chicago continues to grow, and we have welcomed eight RSCJ from around the world to study in Chicago, Berkeley, Boston and St. Louis.

Thank you for all you are with the Religious of the Sacred Heart. We welcome you to join us in our mission, and we count on your prayer.

With love and gratitude,

Barbara Dawson RSCJ

“We are all God’s property, and our life must be one wild bird’s song of praise, one wild flower’s face looking up to God.” —Janet Erskine Stuart, RSCJ

Dear Sacred Heart Family and Friends,

Life Unfolding, Offering the Gift. It is the title of a small booklet produced by the Society after an international formation meeting in Mexico and used by Religious of the Sacred Heart around the world.

Life Unfolding, Offering the Gift also describes what our donors and friends have helped create this past year.

At the international formation meeting, RSCJ from many countries spent weeks praying and reflecting together on the essential elements in our formation program for younger members and about the ongoing formation for all of us as Religious of the Sacred Heart. God calls us throughout our lives to be open to God's Spirit inspiring and unfolding within ourselves and our world, to discern the needs of God's people today and to respond with generous hearts.

Our province is blessed that so many friends and benefactors share our response to God's call and feel compelled to respond with a generous heart. Our annual report reflects the many spiritual and educational ministries you have helped us initiate, unfold and strengthen:

- Providing Formation to Mission programs in the twenty-four Sacred Heart Schools in the United States and Canada;
- Supporting RSCJ from developing countries as they receive advanced degrees in this province and return to their countries to assume leadership positions;
- Strengthening the many spiritual ministries of the province—the Spiritual Ministry Center, Sophie Barat House, biking and hiking retreats and Busy Persons' Retreats in Network schools;

- Opening Sophia House as a welcoming community in Berkeley, California, and inviting young women to discern a life in the Society;
- Expanding the leadership, service and technology programs offered at the Stuart Center in Washington, DC;
- Continuing the care of our elderly sisters at Oakwood, Albany, and Halifax.

“We seek to incarnate in our daily life, through our presence and service, the compassion and forgiveness of the Heart of Jesus, and with others, to bring to birth a world where humanity, justice and tenderness are possible.” (Life Unfolding)

Our province has grown in hope and joy over these past several years. We are grateful for your generous support of the Society and for continuing our great mission of making known the love of the Heart of Jesus in our world.

As we conclude the remembrance of the 100th anniversary of the death of Janet Erskine Stuart, RSCJ, I conclude with her words, “Love is the gift of self; all forms of the gift of self for the love of Christ are devotion to the Sacred Heart.” Thank you for continuing to reveal the love of the Heart of Christ to all of us. We promise prayer for you.

With love and prayer,

Paula Gruner, RSCJ, and Rose Marie Quilter, RSCJ, with good friends from Avila Lodge, John and Rosemarie Wagner.

“Life faces you with courageous challenges at every step of the way. You are on the path, exactly where you are meant to be right now... and from here, you can only go forward, shaping your life story into a magnificent tale of triumph, of healing, of courage, of beauty, of wisdom, of power, of dignity, of love.”

Approximately 150 educators from Sacred Heart schools in the United States and Canada gathered in St. Charles in June for the annual Roots That Give Us Wings conference, designed to deepen Sacred Heart educators' understanding of the Society's spiritual and educational mission. Local RSCJ joined them for liturgy and dinner at Villa Duchesne and Oak Hill School.

Mamie Jenkins, RSCJ, looks forward to the weekly visits of the Sacred Heart Schools, Atherton, students to Oakwood.

The third grade readers from Sacred Heart Schools, Atherton, gather around Sister Nancy Lassotovitch.

*“Remember that whatever happens...
you must say to yourself, according to circumstances,
joyfully and thankfully or humbly and submissively or bravely or if need be, defiantly to the troubles within, this is part of the story and the story is God’s love for you and your love for God.”*

Sister Sophie Maille’s image for Life Unfolding: Offering the Gift illustrates our joyful abundance and the gifts “spilled out” upon us.

Society of the Sacred Heart United States – Canada

The Society of the Sacred Heart of Jesus is an international community of women in the Catholic Church, founded in 1800 by Saint Madeleine Sophie Barat. Sharing her vision and mission, we are convinced of the centrality of prayer and contemplation in our lives. We, the Religious of the Sacred Heart, are committed to discovering and making God's love visible in the heart of the world through the service of education. Conscious that what we do, we do together, and remembering a tradition marked by a love for young people and missionary spirit, the Religious of the Sacred Heart carry out this service of education:

- ♥ especially in the work of teaching and formation
- ♥ in other activities for human development and the promotion of justice
- ♥ in pastoral work and guidance in the faith

— Constitutions of the Society of the Sacred Heart, 1982

PROVINCIAL TEAM Barbara Dawson, RSCJ, Provincial; Diana Wall, RSCJ; Anne-Marie Conn, RSCJ; Sheila Hammond, RSCJ; Margaret (Meg) Causey, RSCJ.

“Of all the virtues that we can least afford to lose hold of in our time, HOPE seems to be the most needed.”

—Janet Erskine Stuart, RSCJ

Our friends in the Philippines needed aid of all kinds in the wake of Typhoon Haiyan.

Spirits are going up along with the walls, as RSCJ in the Congo use the gifts from donors in the United States and Canada to rebuild dormitories destroyed by fire.

A young boy saves his family's image of the Sacred Heart during the aftermath of Typhoon Haiyan in the Philippines.

Thank You!
